

Daniel Paredes

Contributed by nestor
Wednesday, 16 September 2009
Last Updated Sunday, 20 September 2009

ABOUT Daniel Paredes

Company: Modus Vivendi Salsa Productions
Australian Salsa Champion: Profesional Division (2009)
Australian Salsa Champion: Teams Australian Champion (2005, 2006, 2008).
Times World Salsa Championships Finalist 2006
Professional: Dancer

The Person

Coming from a South American background, Daniel grew up listening to Latin music. His love for dancing commenced in 2003 and has never looked back. Known for his high energy performances, Daniel is a well established dancer of the Modus Vivendi Professional team.

The Performer

Daniel made his performance debut in November 2003, performing with some of Sydneys highly decorated professionals at Latin Dance Australia.

Since then he has gone on to win numerous Australian titles with Modus Vivendi and represented Australia at the Salsa World Championships.

Partnered up with Josie Cote from Modus Vivendi, Daniel and Josie are current Australian Salsa Champions 2009 and have been invited to participate in numerous interstate and international events.

He has been fortunate enough to perform in cities and countries like Los Angeles, Las Vegas, San Juan (Puerto Rico), Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Gold Coast, Brisbane and most major cities around Australia, and has received countless invitations more.